

The Intelligencer.

Office No. 20 and 21 Fourteenth Street.

The Newburg relief fund opens well. Treasurer's response was immediate, and we are confident, has not reached its limit. The investigation made by the Intelligencer representative shows that the sorrow-stricken families are helpless and in need. The funds will be placed at once in responsible hands. Money cannot bring back the dead, but it can bring substantial comforts to the living.

Democratic friends in Council have great faith in the caucus.

There is nothing in the grab-bag for the Second District? And if not what does the gain by being joined to his idol?

Senator Payne wishes a chance to clear himself and be ought to have it. His son, Oliver, hasn't begun to ask for a chance. Probably he doesn't desire it.

A little comment, so to speak, between the West Virginia Senators, is reported in our Washington budget. If Camden would bow to beauty, or Kenna to years, wouldn't that fix it?

It is interesting to note that the Prince of Wales is said to be in danger of assassination, and he must necessarily pass many a wicked hour in dread, while the humblest of Victoria's subjects enjoy tranquil repose.

It is painful to see the West Virginia Democracy holding a lodge of sorrow in Washington. They want District Attorney Flick out, they don't know how to get him out, and they don't know who will fill his place. This is nothing short of a farce.

DEAD MINERS

Brought from the Black Depths of the Newburg Mine.

The Bodies of Sixteen of the Unfortunate ones Recovered.

Their Distorted Features Disclose the Agony of Their Death.

The First Funeral, Father and Son, takes Place Yesterday.

Both of them being Buried in one Grave.

Many of the Families in Need of Immediate Relief.

Measures Taken to Provide for their Necessities.

The Coroner's Investigation to Begin To-day.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

Newburg, W. Va., Jan. 24.—Work in the shaft was kept up all night by relief. The men reached the upper end of the air heading and are returning on the parallel way.

As the deep, dark recesses of the mine yielded up the stricken families the scorched and bruised bodies of the unfortunates who were killed in the terrible explosion of last Thursday, the grief that for four days has enveloped this place is felt more keenly, and tender hearts, though often covered by rough exteriors, go out in sympathy to the sorrowing ones whom death so suddenly deprived of friends so near and dear to them. The number of interested on-lookers at the shaft has not been decreased. They stand there solemn and silent, patiently waiting the result of the work far down below them.

SIXTEEN BODIES RECOVERED.

Since yesterday thirteen more bodies have been found in the bottom of the pit. About 10 o'clock this morning the order, "Hoist away steady," was given, the great wheels began to revolve, and slowly from the depths of the shaft rose the cage, bearing the fourth body that had no far been found. At intervals during the day others were brought up.

LIST OF THE IDENTIFIED.

Thus far the following have been identified, the first three having been brought up yesterday:

DANIEL MILLER
ISAIAH TIMMONS
WILLIAM TIMMONS
ADOLPH WIEN
JOHN LAMBERT
GEORGE RIGGS
THOMAS GUY
HARRY GUY
JOHN CONWAY
CHARLES TUNLEY
EDWARD TUNLEY
RICHARD BIRLEY
NICHOLAS BIRLEY

UNEXPECTED SUCCESS.—VIEWING THE BODIES.

It having been thought impossible to penetrate the mass of debris in the headings far enough to take out any bodies to-day, the coroner's jury adjourned yesterday until to-morrow morning. When it was found that the searchers were meeting with unexpected success the coroner was notified and the jury soon brought up the bodies.

As the bodies were received at the top of the shaft they were taken charge of by the coroner's jury for identification and then turned over to the undertaker. The bodies found were in various positions, some with arms extended as if about to pursue their usual work; others with arms and limbs outstretched as if in awful agony. All were terribly burned and blackened, and their distorted features told of their intense agony, but none were so mutilated as the three that were recovered yesterday. One man was found face down with his head on his arm as if he had escaped the violence of the explosion and retained that position in his death. The finger nails were buried in his face, and the knowledge that thirty-six more are to follow, lend to the occasion more than ordinary solemnity.

THEY WERE INSTANTLY KILLED.

But this theory is contradicted by practical miners, who think the men were killed by the explosion and not by suffocation. The exploring parties have been untiring in their work, and have succeeded in getting the air passages in good condition so that sufficient fresh air is assured. The recovery of the bodies now is a question of time only, as the men have penetrated the length of both headings in the mine, and the work will only be retarded by the necessary removal and removal of debris as they proceed. It is thought that all the bodies will be recovered by to-morrow evening.

YESTERDAY'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Daniel Miller, the cager, Isaiah Timmons, the fire boy, and his son William, took place this afternoon from the M. E. Church and were attended by a large concourse of sympathetic friends, Isaiah Timmons and his son were buried in the same grave. This has probably been the saddest funeral ever witnessed in this city. The finger nails were buried in his face, and the knowledge that thirty-six more are to follow, lend to the occasion more than ordinary solemnity.

THE FIRST REMOVED.

Timmons the father was terribly burned about the face and head, his hair, eyebrows and moustache being singed close. His face after being washed was the color of raw beef. The left eye was closed, the right almost bursting from the socket. The limbs and ribs were broken in many places. The finger nails were buried in his face and had curled from the fingers. The boy Timmons, fourteen years old and small for his age, was badly mangled about the head that bandages had to be used to make him at all presentable. His face was little marked and very pale. Those who were familiar with Miller said he was easily recognizable. The bodies in their neat coffins were placed on view in front of the undertaker's, and a stream of people poured by.

THE INSPECTOR OF MINES ARRIVES.

The State Inspector of Mines has arrived. He went immediately down the shaft to inspect the pit. His opinion has not yet been given. James Little, of Elk Garden, W. Va., of Piedmont, J. H. Richardson, from the Ganton Works at Fairmont, and Robert Jack, of West Fairmont, experienced and fearless men, have rendered valuable service in the work of exploration. Gas was found in the mine so late yesterday that they feared another explosion, more terrible than the first. Orders were sent to Wheeling and Baltimore for safety lamps, of which there was an astonishing scarcity here. There is a good deal of talk in town of a lack of organization at the mine, for which

RELIEF MEASURES.

Meeting of Citizens—A Committee Formed With the Mayor as Treasurer.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

Newburg, W. Va., Jan. 23.—The Mayor of Newburg called a meeting of the citizens which was attended by the prominent men of the town and adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That we fully appreciate the painful calamity which has overtaken us and the actual necessity of funds for the support of the distressed widows and orphans, and that we most earnestly invoke our own citizens, as well as the citizens of neighboring towns, to contribute to come to our relief with money, provisions, clothing, &c.

The following committee was appointed to receive contributions:

G. E. Ellis, Mayor and Treasurer, of Allen Co., merchants.
M. L. Shaffer, of Shaffer & Bonafide of Tunnelton, W. Va.
Dr. T. F. Lanham, druggist, Newburg.
J. J. Gibson, of Gibson & Anderson, Newburg.
J. E. Paul, of Paul & Co., Newburg.
Rev. B. B. Evans, M. E. Church, Newburg.
Rev. Samuel Graham, Presbyterian Church, Newburg.
Soy. Mr. Varner, M. P. Church, Newburg.

Rev. Father Heiman, Catholic Church, Newburg.

At a special meeting of Aurora Lodge No. 43, A. F. & A. M., of Newburg, the amount of fifty dollars was appropriated for the relief of the sufferers and a committee appointed to disburse the same.

The local subscriptions amount to about $100, of which Wm. G. Brown, Jr., of Kingwood, gives $100. The correspondent of the Intelligencer handed the committee a telegram saying that Henry K. Lee, of Wheeling, had placed with the Intelligencer $50, and that more would be raised. The local committee was much encouraged by this mark of sympathy from the outside. It is worth recalling that this little community, now so sorely stricken, sent $200 to Wheeling's flood sufferers. The Relief Committee will avail itself of the services of the women of Newburg, who will visit families and recommend such relief as may be most needed at once.

THE INTELLIGENCER FUND.

A Very Good Song Sent to the Newburg Sufferers.

The response to the editorial in Saturday's Intelligencer suggesting that the families of the Newburg victims would be in need, and calling for contributions for their relief was ready and liberal. Messrs. J. K. Hall and A. A. Franzheim circulated a list for subscriptions, and collected over $500. Following is the list of contributors:
